Out and About

Prerequisite: Girl Scouting 101 (GS101, available online at: http://gsuniversity.girlscouts.org/course/girl-scouting-101/)

Out and About prepares volunteers to take girls on field trips beyond their meeting places and that are four hours or more in length. These trips may include, but are not limited to, trips to the zoo, museums, and/or simple hikes. It also prepares volunteers to take the girls on overnights inside a building that has an automated heat source, electricity and running water. Topics will include health and safety, progression in the outdoors, and simple hiking guidelines.
This course begins promptly at 8:45am and runs until 11:45am. Check-in at Spence Lodge begins at 8:30am.
Cost: None

Ready? Set? Go!

Prerequisite: Out and About

Ready? Set? Go! gives volunteers the knowledge and experience to teach the girls to build fires safely, begin their outdoor cooking adventures and to sleep overnight in established tents or lean-tos. This course will prepare participants to sleep overnight at their camporee.
Please note any food allergies or concerns on the registration form. You will need a mess kit and dunk bag for this course.
This course begins promptly at 12:15pm and runs until 5:15pm. Check in at Spence Lodge begins at 12:00pm.
Cost: $20 includes food

Advanced Outdoor Cooking Workshop

Pre-requisite: Fire, Food and Fun or Ready? Set? Go!

This workshop will provide participants with an expanded repertoire to choose from when their girls are looking for new cooking skills such as Dutch Oven cooking, box ovens and gimmick cooking. Participants will experience a variety of cooking methods.
This course will meet the requirements for renewing Camping Adventures Certification and will run from 10:00am – 3:00pm. Check-in at Spence Lodge begins at 9:45am.
Cost: $25 includes food
