

make the world a better place

Serving as a Girl Scout today means being part of a worldwide organization that builds leadership skills by providing girls with opportunities to discover their interests, connect with others, and take action to change the world for the better. March 12, 2011 marks the 99th Anniversary of Girl Scouting. During Girl Scout Week, which runs from March 6 through 12, Girl Scouts of all ages celebrate by demonstrating leadership and commitment in ways that have a real impact on their communities.

Girl Scouts is proud that change is one of our greatest traditions. We continue to keep in step with girls' needs while remaining true to the core values of the Girl Scout Movement. The Girl Scout Promise "to help people at all times" is actualized everyday through a vast array of community service projects in which Girl Scouts help make the world, and our community, a better place.

We thank all the volunteers and members in our communities for their time, talent and financial support. That spirit of volunteerism and support makes it possible for us to continue to be the best leadership experience for girls—today, tomorrow and always.
