

Your Cookies are Coming!

Thank you for ordering Girl Scout Cookies from me. I recently learned that the bakery that bakes our cookies has experienced production delays. So, I will be receiving my customers' cookies later than expected.

I will pick up my cookies from my troop leader at the end of March. At that time, I will reach out to all my customers to arrange for delivery of their cookie order.

Thank you for supporting me, your favorite Girl Scout entrepreneur, as I work toward my cookie program goals!
