

Leave a Legacy

Join the Juliette Gordon Low Society
1912 to present

When Juliette Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouts, converted the carriage house of her home into the first national headquarters, she gifted the property to Girl Scouts in her will.

Juliette's bequest was the beginning of planned giving. In her honor, the Juliette Gordon Low Society was established to thank and honor friends who choose to make Girl Scouts part of their legacies and a beneficiary of their estate plans.

Won't you consider a gift to Girls Scouts of CT in your estate planning? You, too, can follow Juliette's lead and leave a legacy by naming Girl Scouts of CT as beneficiary of the following:

- Will
- Retirement plan
- Charity annuity
- Living trust
- Donor advised fund
- Life insurance policy
- Charitable remainder or lead trust
- Gifted real estate
- Any other gift which will benefit girls of the future.

Benefits of Membership

As a member of the JGL Society you will be invited to attend special recognition and education events, listing as a Society member to select Girl Scout publications, and a receive a special membership pin.

For more information, please contact Rosemary Padin at rpadin@gsofct.org or (800) 922-2770 ext. 3234