

girl scouts of connecticut

Position: Troop/Group Co-Leader

Resume Description:

Cultivate tomorrow's leaders by offering a positive and safe environment where girls gain confidence by unleashing their inner go-getter to persist through challenges, use innovation to solve problems, are encouraged to take risks, and try new experiences and where they recognize, develop, and appreciate their leadership strengths.

- Coordinate #___ adult leaders and #___ girls to organize programs that empower girls for the future.
- Develop and plan member communications until girl members are confident and ready to manage the process.
- Encourage girl members to identify activity, trip, and community service goals. Help them organize trips and activities, maintain regularly scheduled meetings, provide transportation arrangements, and ensure safety procedures are followed and appropriate forms are completed.
- Leverage communication and influence skills to resolve conflicts or difficulties in an appropriate manner.
- Participate in continual learning to increase expertise of software updates, changes in Girl Scout policy and procedures, and local bank engagement requirements along with program enhancements to engage the girl members.
- Leverage online software resources to register group with online registration, participate in program offerings, and track progress toward cookie and QSP product sales.
- Manage budget and bank account for group.
- Follow all Girl Scout procedures, policies, and promoted goals of organization.

Marketable Skills:

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| • Mentor who builds confidence and tomorrow's leaders | • Presentation & training skills | • Public speaking & presentation skills |
| • Records management | • Organization & event planning skills | • Leadership & motivational skills |
| | • Communication skills | |